FAST TRIP TO

Nearly equaling the record of her maiden trip of five days and two hours, the Matson steamer Matsonia arrived in Honolulu at 7:15 last evening five days; six hours and five minutes from San Francisco, and docked at Pier 15. This time was 12 hours ess than her regular schedule calls

The fast time made by the Matsonia shows that when necessary she has plenty of speed to call upon and, according to Capt. Charles Peterson, better time than that could have been made if Captain Matson had not ordered that the engines be kept down to 78 revolutions a minute. Regardless of the speed she was very steady and no discomfort was experienced

All of the Matsonia's cargo was for Honology. She prought 401 bags of mail, 85 packages of express matter and 7622 tong of freight. Passengers on board numbered 139 cabin and 36 steerage. Her freight consisted of 26 steerage. Her freight consisted of 26 steerage.

Coast stevedores is tentatively held in abeyance. However, the longshore men threaten to walk out again unless the crowds ground the wharfs are dispersed and kept away.

The Matsonia, Just arrived, brings stories of how the crew and officers all helped to unload and load its cargoes on the last trip to the coast. Luckily for Honolulu people the Maty son Line met this emergency so welf, as the Matsonia brought a large and fresh supply of that delicious and famous Orange Blossom Candy and Chocolates, of which the Honolulu Drug Company, 4024 Fort street, always carries a fresh and large assortment.
